„I am a person who believes in carrying for others. I realized that I want to remove myself from my comfort zone and give a helping hand to people in other countries, hence I applied for a volunteer service for Caritas in Germany. I take this opportunity as a life changing one.“

Informationen about Nosi:

I am Nositembiso Mageveza, 26 years old and have been doing a voluntary service at Caritas Betriebs- und Werkstätten GmbH in Eschweiler near Aachen since August.

Before that, I worked in South Africa as an assistant teacher at Ubuntu Pathways in the Zwinde community and studied early childhood development. I would now like to further my education in the field of care. In the course of my voluntary service, I would like to improve my skills, gain experience and share them in my home country when I return.

I am a helpful, respectful and motivated person with a sense of humour. In my free time I love to sing or read. In my free time, I otherwise enjoy being active, whether it's dancing or aerobics. I am also learning to swim and speak German.

SAGE Net e.V. and the weltwärts South-North program:

SAGE Net has been promoting intercultural exchange and long-term cooperation between South Africa and Germany for many years. Within the framework of the South-North Programme of the Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ), we enable young people from South Africa to complete a voluntary service in Germany.
